

REEDSBURG POLICE DEPARTMENT MEDIA RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Patrick B. Cummings
Chief of Police
February 23, 2022

Man Arrested on Numerous Charges After Resisting Arrest

(REEDSBURG, WI) A Reedsburg man was taken into custody Monday evening after resisting arrest.

Reedsburg Police were advised that Jeremy T Allred (45) of Reedsburg was inside a local business in the 1800 block of East Main Street at around 9:15pm. Officers were aware that Allred had a body only warrant for his arrest out of Adams County. Allred refused to follow the officer's commands and resisted arrest as the officers attempted to take him into custody. Allred was tased and then secured in handcuffs.

Allred was arrested for Resisting an Officer, Disorderly Conduct, Carrying a Concealed Knife, Possession of Methamphetamine, Possession of Drug Paraphernalia, Bail Jumping and the Adams County Warrant. Allred was transported to Sauk County Jail.

###

